

Robert E. Kulesh, Vice President Sales and Marketing
Matthews Studio Equipment Inc.

After a 27 year career as an independent producer Robert Kulesh joined Matthews Studio Equipment Inc. Kulesh has applied his engineering education, along with his hands on experience working with production equipment and mixed them with many years of practical experience gained in working in foreign environments and cultures to implement and develop an international sales effort for Matthews Studio Equipment.

This program has evolved into a successful world wide effort contributing to productions and retail sales in over 80 countries. In 2009 Matthews was named as a recipient of one of only fourteen companies throughout the country to be recognized as "EXPORTER OF THE YEAR." by the COMMERCIAL NEWS a publication of the Dept. of Commerce that promotes U.S. exports to the world. In 2010 Matthews Studio Equipment was recognized for their successful and aggressive export activities and was awarded "The President's Award for Excellence in Export" at ceremonies in Washington D.C. In 2012 Kulesh joined the District Export Council of Southern California and hopes to share Matthews' successful export experiences with other small businesses in the area. In 2012 Matthews Studio Equipment was recognized as "Exporter of the Year" by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce during World Trade Week.

Kulesh continues to travel throughout the world introducing Matthews products and teaching Matthews' philosophy of "Technology that complements your imagination" through seminars, trade show participation and visiting shooting locations and stages on all continents.
